S.C. AAA M.H.A. HARASSMENT/ABUSE POLICY & CODE OF CONDUCT

MISSION STATEMENT

Sun County AAA Minor Hockey is committed to creating a hockey program for youth that is fun, where participants can develop and learn technique and skills of the game, life skills and good sportsmanship in a safe environment.

VISION STATEMENT

Everyone related to the game of hockey deserves to be treated with respect. This includes coaches, referees, team-mates, players from other teams, parents and spectators. As volunteers we are required to ensure the safety of the players in our charge.

PARENTS, COACHES, TEAM PERSONNEL, OFFICIALS - Take Note:

SCAAAMHA's goal is to eliminate all forms of harassment and abuse, including physical and sexual abuse. However, S.C.M.H.A. recognizes that verbal and emotional harassment and abuse are far more common than physical and sexual harassment and abuse, and S.C.M.H.A. is determined that they should not be tolerated either. S.C.M.H.A.'s first priority is to protect its players. At the same time, Coaches, Parents, and Officials can also be the targets of harassment and abuse. This Policy aims to eliminate all harassment and abuse in S.C.M.H.A., no matter who the harasser or abuser is, and no matter who the target is.

THEREFORE, every individual who participates in S.C.M.H.A. activities, including the parents, guardians, or caregivers of players, will be expected to learn, know, and abide by the rules, guidelines, and Codes of Conduct being introduced. Failure to do so may result in disciplinary action, including potential expulsion.

IT DOES HAPPEN IN MINOR SPORT:

Some people think S.C.M.H.A. is overreacting to the dangers of harassment and abuse. The Board of Directors disagrees. Following the HC's introduction of anti-harassment and abuse efforts, hundreds of reports were made to it about incidents such as hazing rituals, underage drinking encouraged by team officials, verbal and emotional abuse following bad plays, racial discrimination, abusive physical punishment, and sexual harassment and abuse.

AND IT DOES HAPPEN HERE:

No allegations of sexual misconduct have ever been made in S.C.M.H.A. and we intend to keep it that way. Likewise, the majority of S.C.M.H.A. activities are incident-free; however, there have been situations where parents and other spectators verbally abused Officials team personnel and opposing players.

THESE ARE THE BEHAVIOURS AND ACTIONS WE'RE TRYING TO PREVENT AND ELIMINATE FROM S.C.M.H.A.

Following are the definitions that will guide our anti-harassment and abuse efforts.

Abuse: Maltreatment or lack of care that causes harm to another.

Harassment: Intentional comments, conduct, or gestures that are insulting, intimidating, humiliating, malicious, degrading, offensive, or discriminatory, directed toward an individual or group of individuals. Unwanted, unsolicited, unwelcome attention or actions that humiliate and/or degrade another person. Harassment can include:

- condescending, patronizing, threatening or punishing actions, which undermine self-esteem;
- practical jokes which cause awkwardness or embarrassment, or which may endanger a person's safety;
- hazing, unwanted physical contact;
- discriminatory conduct;
- retaliation for having raised a concern filed a complaint, etc.

Assault: An assault is the intentional application of force by one person against another, without the consent of that person.

Sexual Assault: Any form of unwanted sexual contact without the consent of the person.

Child Abuse: Any form of physical, emotional and/or sexual mistreatment or lack of care that causes physical injury or emotional damage to a child. A common characteristic of all forms of abuse against children and youth is an abuse of power or authority and/or breach of trust.

Neglect: Chronic inattention to the basic necessities of life. This may occur in hockey when injuries are not adequately treated or players are made to play with injuries, equipment is inadequate or unsafe, no-one intervenes when team members are persistently harassing another player, or road trips are not properly supervised.

Sexual Harassment: Acts of sexual harassment are unwanted, uninvited remarks, gestures, sounds, or actions of a sexual nature that makes someone feel unsafe, degraded or uncomfortable, creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive sport/recreation environment.

Examples include:

- unwanted, unwelcome physical contact like touching, grabbing, or patting
- linking skills with gender, body shape or size, or sexual orientation:
- rude jokes or suggestive remarks of a sexual nature
- demeaning nicknames, catcalls, rating, or embarrassing whistles,
- writing names on washroom or change room walls
- insults about sexual orientation
- sexually insulting remarks about race, gender, class, or ability
- stalking
- unwanted physical contact or sexual flirtation or advances.

Verbal Abuse: Screaming, yelling, name-calling, especially when repeated or consistent, intended to humiliate and/or degrade the person.

Emotional Abuse: Attacks, prolonged or chronic, on an individual's self-esteem. This is psychologically destructive behaviour, by a person in a position of power, authority, or trust. Takes many forms, including but not limited to, name-calling, threatening, ridiculing, berating, intimidating, isolating, hazing, ignoring someone's needs, or discriminating against that person.

Physical Abuse: Takes place when a person in a position of power or trust purposefully injures or threatens to physically harm someone; can include slapping, hitting, shaking, kicking, pulling hair or ears, throwing, shoving, grabbing, hazing, or requiring excessive exercise as a form of punishment.

Sexual Abuse: " ... the misuse of power by someone who is in authority over a child, for the purposes of exploiting a child for sexual gratification." Sexual abuse can be of two kinds, contact or non-contact, and includes incest, sexual molestation, sexual assault and the exploitation of the child for pornography or prostitution, forcing a child to watch someone else remove clothing or perform sexual acts, fondling or touching a child in private places, forcing a child to take part in sexual activities.

SCAAAMHA IS NOT TRYING TO "OUTLAW" PHYSICAL CONTACT

Sexual harassment is NOT:

- a hug between friends
- sincere and personal
- compliments
- spontaneous gestures of affection

However, Coaches and other team personnel will be meeting with parents and players about this issue in order to establish ground rules for their teams. If an individual is uncomfortable with these rules, it is up to him or her or his or her parents or guardians to discuss it with the Coach.

HERE'S HOW WE INTEND TO ELIMINATE HARASSMENT AND ABUSE:

Rather than creating a large number of hard and fast rules and regulations. our risk management measures focus on people taking responsibility and being held accountable for their actions; exercising discretion and judgement in trying to prevent harassment and whoever the harasser/abuser is, and whoever the target is.

CODES OF CONDUCT

The S.C.M.H.A. Board has approved Codes of Conduct, which came into force in September 1999. They establish the standards for behaviour and action that all participants will be expected to strive to meet. The Codes will be enforced, and behaviour and action contrary to them may lead to disciplinary measures and possibly expulsion. The Codes are printed on pages 7-8. All participants are responsible for learning and abiding by them.

DISCIPLINARY PROCESSES

The following disciplinary processes will be used to deal with breaches of the Code of Conduct or the Bylaws. Players, Team Personnel, and Officials are subject to a disciplinary process that conforms to OHF regulations. S.C.M.H.A. has created a separate process for parents.

NOTE: the designated S.C.M.H.A. Official reviews Game sheets from all games each week. Incidents warranting review are flagged for follow-up by the appropriate Parent Liaison. A single incident will usually not result in a disciplinary hearing, unless it is required by OHF/HC guidelines, or unless violence or abuse is alleged.

Disciplinary Process for Players, Coaches, Assistants, Managers, Trainers, Officials

Complaints, penalties, suspensions, or breaches of the Code of Conduct may result first in a warning letter being sent to the individual.

Where OHF/HC regulations require it, and if the breach of the Code is not remedied or is serious enough, an individual may be called to a disciplinary hearing. A panel is set up as per S.C.M.H.A. Rules & Regulations 3.14. The panel will be convened as soon after the incident as possible.

The panel will hear evidence related to the matter, including speaking to the individual him or herself, and to other individuals who have knowledge of the incident(s). If a player under the age of 14 is the subject of the hearing, a parent will accompany him or her.

The panel will make a decision on the matter, using OHF guidelines as applicable, as per SCAAAMHA Rules & Regulations 3.14. A letter outlining the result and consequences is then sent to the individual, Parent Liaison. A copy is kept on file.

Disciplinary Process for Parents

If the behaviour of a Parent causes concern, the Coaches, Parent Liaisons must use common sense and good judgement. The process set out below would be used in most circumstances; however, if a parent's behaviour is reckless, violent, or otherwise immediately threatening, then action should be taken right away to have the individual removed from the arena, and the matter should be referred immediately to the Parent Liaison.

Parents will be introduced to the Codes of Conduct through the Handbook, team meetings, and educational opportunities. The Coach and Parent Liaison are responsible for monitoring the behaviour of parents on their team.

If a parent breaches the Code of Conduct, the Parent Liaison and Coach will speak with the parent, explain the problem behaviour, refer him or her to the Code, offer another copy of it, and warn him or her verbally. The Coach will keep a record of the incident and action taken on Occurrence Report Form. If the parent persists in his or her behaviour, the Coach and Parent Liaison may take the issue to the Board. The Board may decide to ban the individual and his/her child from attending SCAAAMHA practices and games and can bar his/her entry to the arena for a specified period of time (up to one year).

If the individual ignores this ban and shows up at a S.C.M.H.A. event, the Parent Liaison will ask the person to leave. If he or she refuses, the Parent Liaison will call the police and have the individual charged with trespass.

PARENT/PLAYER COMPLAINTS OR CONCERNS

A new process has been created to provide parents and players with a specific process they can use to raise concerns and complaints. It is important that people become familiar with the definitions of harassment and abuse that S.C.M.H.A. has adopted as complaints and allegations of this type can be very serious matters, and mustn't be made lightly or maliciously. If they can be, issues should be resolved at the team level. Therefore, individuals should follow the process and not send complaints to the Board, unless the situation involves allegations of abuse or serious harassment. In such cases, the individual should contact the Parent Liaison or a Board member immediately. The complaint will have to be put in writing.

Resolving Complaints or Concerns

Take concerns or complaints to the Parent Liaison. Discuss the situation with him and try to find a solution. The Parent Liaison will keep a record of the discussion on an Occurrence Report Form. If the matter is not resolved, the Parent Liaison will ask that the complaint be put in writing if the individual wants the issue taken further and may assist the person to do this. It will be then be taken by the Parent Liaison to the Board, which will make a final, binding decision.

ALLEGATIONS OR DISCLOSURES OF HARASSMENT OR ABUSE

Wherever possible, S.C.M.H.A. will deal with breaches of the Codes of Conduct through internal mechanisms. However, if an individual's actions or behaviour constitute an imminent or immediate threat, the organization must and will involve outside authorities, including the police. In addition, if and when a child or youth alleges, reports, or discloses abuse, or if abuse or neglect is suspected, the individual who learns of it and the organization are morally and legally bound to report the matter to the authorities. The process that will be followed in both cases is set out below.

If a child discloses or makes an allegation of abuse, he or she should be comforted, assured of protection and care, and reassured that he or she can continue to play. The individual who receives the disclosure will ask for basic information but will not attempt to interview the child. The matter will be reported to the Windsor-Essex Children's Aid Society. Authorities will be asked if or how the organization should notify anyone (e.g., the child's parents) of the situation.

S.C.M.H.A. will not notify the individual against whom the allegation has been made or the suspicion brought. However, once the authorities have done so, and upon consultation with the authorities, the individual will be suspended from involvement in S.C.M.H.A. activities until the situation is resolved. This may not seem fair; however, the organization's first responsibility is to protect children.

S.C.M.H.A. will make decisions immediately about communication regarding the incident; the President will act as spokesperson. S.C.M.H.A. will weigh the need to protect children against the need to maintain confidentiality as far as possible. People may be talking about the situation; nevertheless, the Human Charter of Rights and Freedoms establishes that a person charged with an offence has the right to be presumed innocent until proven guilty, and the organization must be careful not to defame any individual. However, this right must be balanced with the need to protect children.

S.C.M.H.A. will assist the child protection investigation, but WILL NOT conduct a parallel internal investigation.

S.C.M.H.A. will decide on appropriate action regarding an individual's involvement with S.C.M.H.A. only following the completion of the official investigation and any judicial process that follows (e.g., a hearing, a trial).

The organization may suspend any staff member charged with a provincial or federal offence, pending the disposition of the charge, if the offence is essentially related to the position the individual holds:

If convicted of an offence, individuals may be dismissed by S.C.M.H.A. if the offence is essentially related to the position and if there are reasonable grounds to believe he or she poses a significant risk to children or others.

Following such an incident, S.C.M.H.A. will take action to help the organization and its members heal. S.C.M.H.A. commits itself to supporting the individual(s) who act on suspicions, allegations, disclosures, or reports, recognizing how difficult these matters are.

If an incident occurs, S.C.M.H.A. will undertake an immediate review of its risk assessment efforts and revise them as necessary and will redouble awareness-building and education efforts on harassment and abuse.

SCREENING COACHES, OTHER TEAM PERSONNEL, OFFICIALS

The Coach and Player Development Committee will develop on-the-job screening in the form of supervision, periodic observation, monitoring and evaluation. Similar screening will be done for Officials, both before and after they are hired.

Currently, pre-hiring screening processes for Coaches include the following:

- An interview with a panel of S.C.M.H.A. Liaisons
- Completion of a written set of questions
- A police records check
- A check of personal and business references

RULES AND GUIDELINES

SCAAAMHA risk management measures are primarily focused on fostering the high standards set out in the Codes of Conduct, and on encouraging people to use common sense, discretion, and good judgement in preventing or eliminating harassment and abuse. However, there are specific rules/ guidelines, which will be in force and will be enforced.

As far as possible, there should always be at least two youth or adult leaders in the room with a group of players. Similarly, two adults or more (number dependent on the number of players) should accompany any group of players when they travel.

PEOPLE IN THE DRESSING ROOM:

As of September 2000, the following guidelines will govern who should be in the dressing rooms before and after games.

At the discretion of the Coach, team personnel (including the Coach, Parent Liaison, Assistant Coach, Manager, and Trainer) may meet privately with the players for a brief period before game time. At that time, all other people must leave the room. The door may be closed, but not locked.

After the game, again at the discretion of the Coach, Team Personnel may meet briefly in private with the players. All other people must leave the room. The door may be closed, but not locked.

TRANSPORTATION OF PLAYERS:

Regarding transportation of players, parents are reminded that it is their responsibility to provide transportation for their children to and from S.C.M.H.A. activities. In exceptional circumstances, Coaches may drive children other than their own, but they will not drive alone with a child who is not their own. Parents and Coaches who drive other children should check with their insurance companies to make sure they are covered while doing so. Members are reminded that children under 12 should not be placed in the front seat if there is a passenger side airbag

PARENTS PICKING UP PLAYERS AFTER ACTIVITIES:

Parents must be on time to pick up their children after S.C.M.H.A. activities. When they are not, SCAAAMHA representatives, usually Coaches are placed in a very awkward position and saddled with an unfair burden of responsibility. S.C.M.H.A. may take action if a parent is consistently late.

OUT OF TOWN TRIPS:

Appropriate behaviour is mandatory on team trips. Failure to comply with rules or curfews set out by the coach is deemed unacceptable.

TEAM MEETINGS:

All teams will have at least one meeting during the season. All parents, players (as appropriate), and Team Personnel are to be invited by the Coach. The meeting should be held within the first two-three weeks of the start of the season. At that time, this Handbook will be distributed to all families, and Coaches will review it with parents and players.

Official SCAAAMHA REPRESENTATION AT EVERY GAME:

It is impossible to guarantee that a S.C.M.H.A. Liaison will be able to go to absolutely every game. However, S.C.M.H.A. will make every reasonable effort to have an Official representative, likely a Parent Liaison, at every game, in case there is difficulties that require his or her intervention.

TO TOUCH OR NOT TO TOUCH:

SCAAAMHA intention is to prevent and eliminate harassment and abuse, not to forbid people from touching each other (e.g. Coaches patting players, etc.), nor to make people paranoid about their every move. At the same time, this is a very sensitive topic, and Team Personnel, Parents, and Players (where age-appropriate) are encouraged to talk to one another about this issue and to set ground rules that people feel comfortable with.

MAKING JUDGEMENTS, EVEN WHEN IT'S DIFFICULT:

The fact that S.C.M.H.A. is not making hundreds of rules trying to cover every situation shouldn't be misunderstood. Safety of all who participate in S.C.M.H.A. activities - especially children and youth - is S.C.M.H.A.'s paramount concern. Parents, Coaches, Assistant Coaches, Managers, Trainers, Parent Liaisons, Board Members and Officials are required and expected to take action in the face of breaches of the Codes of Conduct. In addition, all adults are required by law to report to the authorities if they "have reasonable grounds to suspect that a child is or may be in need of protection". That legal obligation cannot be delegated to another person.
